

Draft Personnel Qualification: Station Operator

Education/Experience

- a. Bachelor's degree in Engineering, Computer Science, or some other appropriate field with four (4) years or more of equivalent applicable experience.
- b. The contractor must be proficient in Ocean Suite, and image processing software.
- c. Familiarity with Envi, STK, Google Earth and Arc-GIS are additionally encouraged.

Security Clearance

The contractor must be a US Citizen. The ability to obtain a Secret security clearance is required.

Typical Assignments

- a. Act as primary technician to operate the Government-owned highly transportable satellite tracking system and X-Band antenna system for both RADARSAT and Worldview.
- b. Act as primary technical support to the Mobile Ground Terminal (MGT).
- c. Assist in the exploitation of data and development of Value Added Product (VAP) as required by the management team for the Government-owned highly transportable satellite tracking system.
- d. Help in the task planning of Radarsat and Worldview.
- e. Assist the US Government Coalition Tactical Awareness and Response (CTAR) team as necessary.
- f. Data collections are anticipated in the morning and evening. The contractor work days will be M-F 0500-1400 in garrison at NRL and as needed when deployed.